

4-Alarm Blaze Damages Wilkesboro Snack Shop

No Injuries Reported In Tuesday Morning Fire

WILKESBORO, N.C. -- Crews battled a four-alarm fire Wednesday morning at a Wilkesboro business.

The call came in after 9 a.m. at the 50's Snack Bar on West Main Street.

Authorities told WXII that a garbage truck hit a pole, and a transformer fell and caused damage. The owner then had everyone leave the building.

Witnesses said they could see smoke billowing from the building.

No injuries were reported, but the building did suffer water and smoke damage.
